Fair Work Reforms – Time to Act NOW!

- FREE WEBINARS for Retailers/Businesses -

Are you aware of your obligations under the new Fair Work Act? There will be greater obligations on your business when the Fair Work Act 2009 becomes fully operational on the 1st January 2010. You need to prepare NOW for those significant changes.

The new Fair Work Act 2009 makes major changes to employee redundancies; unfair dismissal claims; union right of entry to your business, transfer of business and collective bargaining.

The new Act also introduces 10 new National Employment Standards (NES) and New Modern Awards which will change the way you manage your employees' entitlements.

Do you want to know more? Do you want to receive free industrial relations resources to use within your workplace? Then don't miss this limited opportunity to participate in one of our free webinars before end of March 2010.

Want to be prepared before January 1? The ARA has scheduled additional webinars during December. Places are limited, so don't miss out!

To see webinar dates and times suitable for you, and to register online now, visit;
